

Reflection Exercise 3*

Diana Shen

September 19, 2024

This is a Paper for in-class reflection exercise 3.

1 Introduction

You can and should cross-reference sections and sub-sections. We use R Core Team (2023) and Wickham et al. (2019).

The remainder of this paper is structured as follows. Section 2....

2 Data

Our data conduct analysis of the location of marriage from 2011 to 2024 in Toronto Figure 1. We can see that city of Toronto has the highest marriage.

``summarise()`` has grouped output by 'year'. You can override using the ``groups`` argument.

*Code and data are available at: <https://github.com/DianaShen1224/Reflection-exercise-3>.
